AT the Court at Windsor, the 29th day of June, 1878.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

Lord President.

Lord Steward.

Mr. Secretary Cross.

WHEREAS by Section 18 of "The Extradition Act, 1870," it is among other things enacted, That if by any law made after the passing of the said Act by the Legislature of any British Possession, provision is made for carrying into effect within such Possession the surrender of Fugitive Criminals who are in, or suspected of being in, such British Possession, Her Majesty may, by the Order in Council applying the said Act in the case of any Foreign State, or by any subsequent Order, either—

Suspend the operation within any such British Possession of the said Act, or of any part thereof, so far as it relates to such Foreign State, and so long as such law continues in force there and no longer ;—

Or direct that such law or ordinance or any part thereof shall have effect in such British Possession, with or without modifications and alterations, as if it were part of the Act :

And whereas by an Ordinance enacted by the Legislature of Malta, "No. IV, 1877," it is provided that "all powers-vested in and acts authorized or required to be done by a Police Magistrate or any Justice of the Peace in relation to the surrender of Fugitive Criminals in the United Kingdom under 'The Extradition Acts, 1870 and 1873,' are thereby vested in and may in the Colony be exercised and done by any Magistrate of Judicial Police in relation to the surrender of Fugitive Criminals under the said Acts."

And whereas it is further provided by the said Ordinance that the said Ordinance shall not come into operation until Her Majesty shall by Order in Council direct that the said Ordinance shall have effect within the Colony as if it were part of "The Extradition Act, 1870," but that the said Ordinance shall thereafter come into operation as soon as such Order in Council shall have been publicly made known in the Colony.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, in pursuance of "The Extradition Act, 1870," and in exercise of the power in that behalf in the said Act contained, doth by this present Order, by and with the advice of Her Majesty's Privy Council, direct that the said Ordinance shall have effect in the Colony of Malta, without modification or alteration, as if it were part of "The Extradition Act, 1870."

And the Right Honourable Sir Michael Edward Hicks-Beach, Bart., one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, is to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

C. L. Peel.

Windsor Castle, June 29, 1878.

THIS day had audience of Her Majesty :—

Prince Hassan Pasha, son of His Highness the Khedive of Egypt ;

To which audience he was introduced by the Right Honourable Richard Assheton Cross, Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Home Affairs, acting for the Marquis of Salisbury, Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs.

His Highness was accompanied by His Excellency Musurus Pasha, Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary to Her Majesty from His Imperial Majesty the Sultan of Turkey.

War Office, July 1, 1878.

THE Queen has been graciously pleased to give orders for the appointment of George Hugh Wyndham, Esq., Her Majesty's Secretary of Legation at Athens, to be an Ordinary Member of the Civil Division of the Third Class, or Companions of the Most Honourable Order of the Bath.

FROM THE
LONDON GAZETTE of JULY 16,
 1878.

War Office, July 15, 1878.

A DESPATCH, of which the following is a copy, has been received by the Secretary of State for War from the General Officer commanding the troops in South Africa :—

King William's Town, Cape of Good Hope,
 SIR, June 12, 1878.

1. SINCE the last communication I had the honour of addressing you, the aspect of affairs in, and on the eastern frontier, of the Cape Colony has considerably improved, the rebels have been driven completely from the fastnesses in the Buffalo Range, and the energy with which the various commanders of the Imperial and Colonial forces have carried on their duties has resulted, as I ventured to anticipate, in either the death or capture of the most prominent rebel leaders, and in the total dispersion of their followers.

2. In my last Despatch I mentioned that a body of Kaffirs had been attacked by two companies of Lonsdale's Fingoes on the 30th May*, in which affair Dukwana, one of Sandilli's body-guard, was killed. It has since transpired that Sandilli himself was present on that occasion, and was then either mortally wounded or killed. From information received through Captain Landry, search was made for his body by a patrol on the 7th June, it was found in the place indicated and has been identified.

* N.B. I believe there was an error in the date, it should have been 29th May.

3. It further appears, from information considered quite reliable by the civil authorities, that Seyolo has been shot in the Fish River District, and the deaths of the following men of note have been reported, Kokwe, brother of "Oba," killed in the Scheln Kloof, and Ngaka, brother of "Macomo." Macomo himself and his brothers, Jape and Mapolisi; are now prisoners; T'Sindwane Gadu, Sandilli's chief councillor, and Somta, the brother of Sandilli, have been captured, together with several other influential men.

The two sons of Sandilli, Edmund and Matauzima, are still at large, hiding in the Thomas River district. They have sent in to the magistrate, Mr. Liefeldt, stating their anxiety to surrender now their father is dead.

Mackinnon and N'Dimba are the only men of note now in arms against us.

4. Even without the surrender or capture of these last-mentioned rebels, I am of opinion that this war may now be considered at an end. Elements of disturbance will no doubt exist for some time to come, but these can be more efficiently met by police patrols, than by the action of military bodies.

5. I have informed his Excellency the Governor of my opinion on this point, and I have every reason to hope that the Government will shortly issue an amnesty.

6. The only part of the Colony where the rebels may be said to be still in some strength is in the Fish River District, where-Commandant Minto, with a considerable Colonial force, is operating.

7. Affairs in Gcalekaland are in the same state as reported in my last Despatch. Kveli is said to be hiding in the Udweassa Forest. Colonel Glyn, commanding Transkei, is at present patrolling that part of the country.

8. Affairs having happily assumed a more peaceful aspect in this Colony, the larger portion of Her Majesty's troops, at present on its frontier, will be set free for service elsewhere, and I am at present expecting instructions from his Excellency the Governor on the subject of their proceeding to Natal.

9. From the reports I have received from officers under my command in the Transvaal, it would appear that the troubles there show no signs of decreasing. Ketchwayo has again ordered the erection of a military kraal on the disputed territory, near Lüneberg, and is preparing to attack the Swazis, who are friendly to our Government.

In the Transvaal, detachments of the 1st Battalion 13th Regiment are occupying Leydenberg and Middleberg, with the object of giving confidence to the well affected, and of enabling volunteers, I believe, to take the field. There appears to be but a tardy response on the part of the inhabitants to the call of the Administrator for assistance.

Colonel Rowlands, V.C., special service, has proceeded to the seat of disturbance, and I expect shortly to receive a report from him.

10. I have received no report of what progress has been made in quelling disturbances in Griqualand West. Major Warren, R.E., with the Diamond Field Horse, has by this time, I trust, reached the Administrator, Lieutenant-Colonel Lanyon.

11. As soon as I have received instructions from his Excellency the Governor as to the future movements of the Imperial Forces, and have made the necessary arrangements for their movements, I purpose proceeding to Cape Town, for a short time, so as to be in personal communication with his Excellency, previous to proceeding to Natal and Transvaal, where I believe my presence desirable.

12. I trust very soon to be in a position to forward for your information, a summary of events since my arrival in South Africa, down to the close of this war.

13. With reference to paragraph 5 of this Despatch, I have further to report that U'Dimba, son of Umbala, has surrendered; Auta, half brother to Sandilli, a Gaika of considerable importance, died two days ago, he had been ailing for some time and had not joined in the rebellion.

I have, &c.,

FRED. THESIGER,
Lieutenant-General Commanding.

Admiralty, July 29, 1878.

A DESPATCH has been received by the Secretary of the Admiralty from Vice-Admiral Lord John Hay, C.B., Commanding Channel Squadron:—

TRANSFER OF THE GOVERNMENT OF THE ISLAND OF CYPRUS TO THE BRITISH CROWN.

Nicosia, Cyprus,

SIR,

July 14, 1878.

BE pleased to acquaint the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty that Her Majesty's ship "Salamis" arrived at Larnaka with Samhi Pasha, the Commissioner appointed by His Majesty the Sultan to conduct the transfer of the government of the Island of Cyprus to the British Crown, together with Mr. Baring, who was the bearer of the firman from the Sultan, giving authority to the then existing Government and the people of the island for this measure to be carried into execution.

My instructions directed me, after communication with the Turkish Governor, to proceed myself with the firman to the Pasha. I, however, found ample reasons to adopt a different course, which I trust will be approved.

2. I directed Mr. Baring to proceed on the 11th to Nicosia, the capital, 23 miles inland, accompanied by Samih Pasha, and requested him to negotiate regarding the preliminary proceedings, giving him discretionary power as to presenting the firman himself, or confiding it to Samih Pasha.

I also directed my Flag Captain, Captain Harry H. Rawson, to accompany them with the view of affording me the necessary information regarding provision for the possible necessity of occupying the capital with a force landed from the fleet.

Captain Rawson returned at midnight on the 11th bringing Mr. Baring's report, of which copy is appended.

I trust their lordships will perceive the intelligence and sagacity displayed by Mr. Baring, whose measures were, up to this moment, crowned with complete success.

3. Meanwhile I had stationed "Black Prince" off the Island, between Larnaka and Kyrenia, "Bittern" at Kyrenia, "Raleigh" from Kyrenia to Paphos, and "Pallas" from Larnaka to Paphos, with suitable instructions to protect the coast.

4. Captain Rawson at once proceeded to Nicosia with a detachment of Marines, Royal Marine Light Infantry and Royal Marine Artillery, under the command of Captain Kelly, Royal Marine Artillery, as per list appended, to carry thence the flag and to act as a guard of honour over it.

5. At daylight, 12th, I went to Nicosia, arriving at 10 A.M., being received by a mounted escort outside the town. The day being Friday the further official proceedings were deferred until after the hour of Mussulman worship. At 2.30 P.M. I proceeded to the Governor's official re-idence (konak), and found present Samih Pasha, Pessim Pasha (Governor, pro tem.) and all the notables, Mussulman and Christian, and the heads of departments of administration. I explained the position of affairs to the assembly, in observation of which the appended notes are a brief but accurate statement.

I had the advantage of Mr. Baring's interpretation into Turkish, this being the only language generally understood by those present.

Some discussion took place upon various details of administration, but principally of a character which, although of great importance, may be discreetly left to be dealt with by my successor.

My observations were well received by the assembly, much gave great satisfaction, and the rest respectfully accepted.

At the conclusion, Pessim Pasha formally handed over to me the government of the Island, as representing Her Britannic Majesty Queen Victoria.

6. I have omitted to state that the Marine Detachment passed me in the street on my way to the konak, and I observed that they were accompanied by an immense multitude amidst enthusiastic cheering.

7. From the meeting of the notables, I proceeded to the gate of the town, where stands the flagstaff, and is situated the barracks of the Marines.

A large concourse of people had assembled, the detachment was drawn up opposite the flagstaff, Captain Rawson hoisted the Union Jack, and the flag was saluted.

I then formally announced to the people that I had taken over the administration of the government of Cyprus in the name of Her Majesty Queen Victoria. I may observe that the only word that seemed to be understood was "Victoria," which was echoed by the multitude amidst tremendous cheering.

Mr. Baring afterwards formally repeated in Turkish, but the presence of the flag seemed to be thoroughly understood by all.

8. The Kaimakhans of the various districts have been summoned by Samih Pasha to the capital to receive instructions as to the change of the governing power ; they will afterwards return to their districts and the operation will be complete.

9. On the whole I think the state of affairs is satisfactory. I am gradually drawing together the threads of administration and I am avoiding the introduction of any novelties, however necessary in the administration. I confine myself to taking measures for the security of life and property and the maintenance of public order.

10. I am compelled to make some provisional appointments of Europeans to assist me, as their lordships will perceive that the work of administration is not done under the easiest circumstances, when the only languages, Turkish and Greek, which are the means of communication, are almost entirely unknown by me.

Under these circumstances I have provisionally appointed Mr. Walter Baring as Secretary to Government. The rest of the appointments (two or three) I shall decide upon to-day, and will inform their lordships accordingly.

I have, &c.,

JOHN HAY, Vice-Admiral,
Commanding Channel Squadron.

To the Secretary of the Admiralty.

P.S — I may add that I have acquainted the Foreign Consuls of the change of Government, and their flags seem now to be hoisted as usual.

Enclosure No. 1.

Nicosia,

MY LORD,

July 11, 1878.

I HAVE the honour to inform your lordships that, in accordance with your instructions, I proceeded here this day in company with his Excellency Samih Pasha and Captain Rawson. On our arrival Samih Pasha went at once to the Government "konak," and communicated the firman handing over the island to Her Majesty the Queen to the Muttessarif and the principal Mussulmans and Christians of the place. I thought it advisable not to be present at the reading of the firman, but in the course of the afternoon Samih Pasha sent a message to the effect that he would be glad to see me. I accordingly went to the konak, and was then informed in the presence of the Members of the Council that the firman had been read, and that the cession of the island was heard with satisfaction by the people.

I conveyed suitable thanks to the Pasha and informed him that your lordship would come up here to-morrow to hoist the flag and to take formal possession.

I continue to think that under the circumstances a small guard will be sufficient merely for the purpose of protecting and saluting the flag.

Time prevents my adding more as Captain Rawson is obliged to leave at once for Larnaka.

I have, &c.,

WALTER BARING.

To Vice Admiral

the Lord John Hay, C.B.

Enclosure No. 3.

Notes of Speech by Vice-Admiral Lord John Hay at the meeting of Samih Pasha and Pessim Pasha, and the Notables at the Konak, in Nicosia, at three P.M., July 12, 1878.

IN accordance with a convention entered into between Her Majesty the Queen and His Majesty the Sultan, and further enforced by the firman of the Sultan, I have been commanded by the Government of Her Majesty to occupy the Island of Cyprus in the name of Her Majesty, and to assume the temporary administration of the Government until the Governor appointed by Her Majesty arrives in Cyprus. I understand from Mr. Baring that the firman was read yesterday in Nicosia, in the presence of the notables, and that you are now prepared to transfer the administration of the Island into my hands.

On my part I have to request that the employés of the Government shall remain in their present offices. Any changes that might be found advisable after experience will be left to my successor to carry out.

The police force will continue to perform its duties commanded by its present officers, whom I shall hold responsible for the maintenance of order.

I shall require all existing taxes and sources of Government revenue to be levied and paid into the public treasury on behalf of the Queen, beginning from to-morrow, the 1st (o.s.), and I shall hold the officials responsible for all funds to the Government, whether proceeding from excise, customs, farmers of the revenue, or other sources.

JOHN HAY.

At the Court at Osborne, July 20, 1878.

THE Queen, as Sovereign of the Most Noble Order of the Garter, has been graciously pleased, by Letters Patent under Her Royal Sign Manual and the Great Seal of the Order, bearing date this day, to dispense with all the Statutes and regulations usually observed in regard to Installation, and to give and grant unto His Royal Highness Ernest Augustus William Adolphus George Frederick of Hanover, Duke of Cumberland and Teviotdale, Knight of the said Most Noble Order of the Garter, and duly invested with the Ensigns thereof, full power and authority to exercise all rights and privileges belonging to a Knight Companion of the said Most Noble Order, in as full and ample a manner as if His Royal Highness had been formally installed, any decree, rule, or usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

At the Court at Osborne, July 22, 1878.

THE Queen, as Sovereign of the Most Noble Order of the Garter, has been graciously pleased, by Letters Patent under Her Royal Sign Manual and the Great Seal of the Order, bearing date this day, to dispense with all the Statutes and regulation usually observed in regard to Installation, and to give and grant unto the Right Honourable Benjamin, Earl of Beaconsfield, Knight of the said Most Noble Order of the Garter, and duly invested with the Ensigns thereof, full power and authority to exercise all rights and privileges belonging to a Knight Companion of the said Most Noble Order, in as full and ample a manner as if his Lordship had been formally installed, any decree, rule, or usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

War Office, July 29, 1878.

THE Queen has been graciously pleased to give orders for the appointment of General Sir John Lintorn Arabin Simmons, K.C.B., to be an Ordinary Member of the Military Division of the First Class, or Knights Grand Cross of the Most Honourable Order of the Bath,—and of Lieutenant-General Sir Arnold Burrowes Kemball, K.C.S.I., C.B., to be an Ordinary Member of the Military Division of the Second Class, or Knights Commanders of the said Order.

Her Majesty has also been graciously pleased to give orders for the appointment of Lord Tenterden, C.B., Under-Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, to be an Ordinary Member of the Civil Division of the Second Class, or Knights Commanders of the said Most Honourable Order of the Bath,—and of Montagu William Lowry Corry, Esq., and Philip Henry Wodehouse Currie, Esq., Joint Secretaries to Her Majesty's Special Embassy to Berlin, and also of Captain John Charles Ardagh, of the Royal Engineers, a Deputy-Assistant Quartermaster-General at Head Quarters, attached to the said Embassy, to be Ordinary Members of the Civil Division of the Third Class, or Companions of the said Order.

CUSTOMS DUTIES IN SPAIN.

TRANSLATION, received from Sir John Walsham, of a Circular to the Administrators of Customs in Spain :—

General Customs, Madrid,
July 29, 1878.

THE following Royal Order has been communicated by the Minister of Finance to this Department, dated to-day.

Your Excellency, His Majesty the King (whom God preserve) has deigned to order that the extraordinary and transitory tax (surcharge) in the third column of the Tariff, shall not be applied to the produce of Great Britain when imported into the Peninsula and Balearie Islands.

By Royal Order I inform your Excellency of this, so that it may be put into execution.

I transmit you the above for your information and guidance.

May God preserve you many years.

FROM THE
LONDON GAZETTE of AUGUST 20, 1878.

Her Majesty's Most Gracious Speech, delivered by the Lords Commissioners to both Houses of Parliament, on Friday, August 16, 1878.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

WHEN, in a critical condition of public affairs, you assembled at the commencement of the year, I pointed out to you that, in the interests of my Empire, precautions might become necessary, for which I appealed to your liberality to provide. At the same time I assured you that no efforts in the cause of peace should be wanting on my part.

Your response was not ambiguous, and contributed largely to a pacific solution of the difficulties which then existed. The terms of agreement between Russia and the Porte, so far as they affected pre-existing Treaties, were, after an interval of discussion, submitted to a Congress of the Powers; and their councils have resulted in a peace which I am thankful to believe is satisfactory and likely to be durable. The Ottoman Empire has not emerged from a disastrous war without severe loss; but the arrangements which have been made, while favourable to the subjects of the Porte, have secured to it a position of independence which can be upheld against aggression.

I have concluded a Defensive Convention with the Sultan, which has been laid before you. It gives, as regards his Asiatic Empire, a more distinct expression to the engagements which in principle I, together with other Powers, accepted in 1856, but of which the form has not been found practically effectual. The Sultan has, on the other hand, bound himself to adopt and carry into effect the measures necessary for securing the good government of those provinces. In order to promote the objects of this Agreement, I have undertaken the occupation and administration of the Island of Cyprus.

In aiding to bring about the settlement which has taken place, I have been assisted by the discipline and high spirit of my Forces by sea and by land, by the alacrity with which my Reserves responded to my call, by the patriotic offers of military aid by my people in the Colonies, and by the proud desire of my Indian Army to be reckoned among the defenders of the British Empire, a desire justified by the soldierly qualities of the force recently quartered at Malta.

The spontaneous offers of troops made by many of the Native Governments in India were very gratifying to me, and I recognise in them a fresh manifestation of that feeling towards my Crown and Person which has been displayed in many previous instances.

My relations with all Foreign Powers continue to be friendly.

Although the condition of affairs in South Africa still affords some ground for anxiety, I have learnt with satisfaction from the reports of my civil and military officers that the more serious disturbances which had arisen among the native population on the frontiers of the Cape Colony are now terminated.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons,

I thank you for the liberal supplies which you have voted for the public service.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

The Act which has been passed for amending and greatly simplifying the law relating to Factories and Workshops will, I trust, still further secure the health and education of those who are employed in them.

I have had much pleasure in giving my assent to a measure relating to the Contagious Diseases of Cattle, which, by affording additional securities against the introduction and spread of those diseases, will tend to encourage the breeding of live stock in the country and to increase the supply of food to my people.

You have amended the Law as to Highways in a manner which cannot but improve their classification and management, and at the same time relieve inequalities in the burden of their maintenance.

I trust that advantage will be taken of the means which you have provided for dividing Bishoprics in the more populous districts of the country, and thus increasing the efficiency of the Church.

I anticipate the best results from the wise arrangements which you have made for the encouragement of intermediate education in Ireland.

The measure for amending and consolidating the Public Health Laws in that country is well calculated to promote the important object at which it aims.

The measure passed in regard to Roads and Bridges in Scotland and for the abolition of Tolls will greatly improve the management of highways in that part of the United Kingdom; while the Acts relating to Education and to Endowed Schools and Hospitals cannot fail to extend the benefits of education and improve the administration of charitable endowments in that country.

In bidding you farewell, I pray that the blessing of Almighty God may rest on your recent labours and accompany you in the discharge of all your duties.

Then a Commission for proroguing the Parliament was read ; after which the Lord Chancellor said :

My Lords and Gentlemen,

By virtue of Her Majesty's Commission, under the Great Seal, to us and other Lords directed, and now read, we do, in Her Majesty's name, and in obedience to Her commands, prorogue this Parliament to Saturday, the second day of November next, to be then here holden ; and this Parliament is accordingly prorogued to Saturday, the second day of November next.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight,
 the 14th day of August, 1878.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS Her Majesty the Queen has power and jurisdiction over Her Majesty's subjects resident in or resorting to China and Japan :

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by virtue of the powers in this behalf by the Foreign Jurisdiction Acts, 1843 to 1875, and by the Act of Parliament of the session of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty's reign (chapter 80), "for the better government of Her Majesty's subjects resorting to China," or otherwise, in Her vested, is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows :

Preliminary.

1. This Order may be cited as "The China and Japan Order in Council, 1878."

2. This Order shall commence and have effect as follows :

(a.) As to the making of any warrant or appointment under this Order, immediately from and after the making of this Order.

(b.) As to all other matters and provisions comprised and contained in this Order, immediately from and after the expiration of one month after this Order is first exhibited in the public office of Her Majesty's Consul-General for the district of the Consulate of Shanghai; for which purpose Her Majesty's Consul-General or other principal Consular Officer for the time being for that district is hereby required forthwith, on receipt by him from Her Majesty's Minister in China of a copy of this Order, with instructions in this behalf, to affix and exhibit this Order conspicuously in that public office, and to keep the same so affixed and exhibited during one month thereafter; of the time of which first exhibition notice shall be published as soon thereafter as practicable in each Consular district in China and in Japan, in such manner as Her Majesty's Ministers there respectively direct; and the time of the expiration of that month shall be deemed the time of the commencement of this Order.

3.—(1.) Articles 9 to 22, both inclusive, of the China and Japan Order in Council, 1865, are hereby revoked.

(2.) Articles 36 and 37 of that Order are hereby revoked as regards Japan only.

(3.) In this Order "The Secretary of State" means one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State.

(4.) Subject to the foregoing provisions, this Order shall be read as one with the China and Japan Order in Council, 1865.

(5.) A copy of this Order shall be kept exhibited conspicuously in each Court and Consulate in China and in Japan.

(6.) Printed copies thereof shall be provided, and shall be sold at such reasonable price as Her Majesty's Ministers there respectively direct.

Supreme Court for China and Japan.

4.—(1.) There shall be a Chief Justice and an Assistant-Judge of the Supreme Court for China and Japan.

(2.) The Assistant-Judge shall be the Registrar of the Supreme Court ; and the office of Law Secretary of the Supreme Court is hereby abolished.

(3.) The Assistant-Judge shall hear and determine such causes and matters, civil and criminal, and transact such other part of the business of the Supreme Court, as the Chief Justice from time to time by general order, or otherwise, directs ; and for that purpose the Assistant-Judge shall have all the like jurisdiction, power, and authority as the Chief Justice.

(4.) Any party to a suit or proceeding wherein any matter or question is heard and determined by the Assistant-Judge shall be entitled, as of course, to a rehearing before the Chief Justice, sitting with the Assistant-Judge, or, in the unavoidable absence of the Assistant-Judge, alone.

(5.) If, on any such rehearing, there is a difference of opinion between the Chief Justice and the Assistant-Judge, the opinion of the Chief Justice shall prevail.

(6.) Throughout the China and Japan Order in Council, 1855, and the Rules made thereunder, the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court shall, as regards China, be deemed to be therein substituted for the Judge of the Supreme Court.

(7.) There shall be attached to the Supreme Court a Chief Clerk, and so many officers and clerks as the Secretary of State from time to time thinks fit.

Court for Japan.

5.—(1.) There shall be in and for Japan a Court styled Her Britannic Majesty's Court for Japan.

(2.) The Court for Japan shall have a seal, bearing its style and such device as the Secretary of State from time to time directs.

(3.) The Court for Japan shall hold its ordinary sittings at Kanagawa, or, on emergency, at any other place within the district of the Consulate of Kanagawa, but may at any time transfer its ordinary sittings to any place in Japan approved by the Secretary of State or by Her Majesty's Minister in Japan.

(4.) There shall be a Judge and an Assistant-Judge of the Court for Japan.

(5.) The Assistant-Judge shall hear and determine such causes and matters, civil and criminal, and transact such other part of the business of the Court, as the Judge from time to time by general order, or otherwise, directs; and for that purpose the Assistant-Judge shall have all the like jurisdiction, power, and authority as the Judge.

(6.) Any party to a suit or proceeding wherein any matter or question is heard and determined by the Assistant-Judge shall be entitled, as of course, to a rehearing before the Judge, sitting with the Assistant-Judge, or, in the unavoidable absence of the Assistant-Judge, alone.

(7.) If, on any such rehearing, there is a difference of opinion between the Judge and the Assistant-Judge, the opinion of the Judge shall prevail.

(8.) In Japan, persons accused of crimes which in England are capital shall be tried by the Judge of the Court for Japan, with a jury, and not otherwise.

(9.) There shall be attached to the Court for Japan a Chief Clerk, and so many officers and clerks as the Secretary of State from time to time thinks fit.

Jurisdiction in Japan.

6.—(1.) Her Majesty's Consul for the district of the Consulate of Kanagawa shall cease to hold and form a Provincial Court.

(2.) Unless and until the Secretary of State otherwise directs, Her Majesty's Consul for the time being for the district of the Consulate of Kanagawa shall be the Assistant-Judge of the Court for Japan.

(3.) All Her Majesty's jurisdiction, civil and criminal, exerciseable in Japan shall, for and within the district of the Consulate of Kanagawa, be vested in the Court for Japan as its ordinary original jurisdiction.

(4.) All Her Majesty's jurisdiction, civil and criminal, exerciseable in Japan beyond the district of the Consulate of Kanagawa, and not under this Order vested in the Court for Japan, shall, to the extent and in the manner provided by the China and Japan Order in Council, 1865, as modified by this Order, be vested in the Provincial Courts in Japan, each for and within its own district.

(5.) The Court for Japan shall have, in all matters, civil and criminal, an extraordinary original jurisdiction throughout Japan, concurrent with the jurisdiction of the several Provincial Courts in Japan, the same to be exercised subject and according to the provisions of the China and Japan Order in Council, 1865, as modified by this Order.

7.—(1.) Subject to the provisions of this Order, the provisions of the China and Japan Order in Council, 1865, and the Rules in force in the Supreme Court and other Courts in China and Japan made under that Order, shall extend and apply to the Court for Japan, as if the same were a Court (not a Provincial Court) established under that Order.

(2.) For the purpose of the application thereof to the Court of Japan, in Articles 23, 24, 38, 39, 41, 42, 43, 47, 54 to 57, 59, 61, 62, 67, 68, 69, 72, 74, 77 to 80, 83, 93, 99, 102, 105, 108 to 111, 117, 119, 120 to 126, 144, 153, 155, all inclusive of that Order, and throughout those Rules, there shall, as regards Japan, be deemed to be substituted Japan for China or for China and Japan, Kanagawa for Shanghai, the Court for Japan for the Supreme Court for China and Japan, and the Judge and Assistant-Judge of the Court for Japan for the Judge and Assistant-Judge of the Supreme Court ; but not so as to affect those Articles or Rules as regards operation thereof in and for China.

8.—(1.) Article 119 of the China and Japan Order in Council, 1865, relative to appeals in civil cases to the Supreme Court for China and Japan, shall extend and apply to appeals from decisions of the Court for Japan, as if the same were a Provincial Court within that Article ; and that Article, and the Rules therein referred to, shall accordingly, notwithstanding anything in this Order, apply to appeals from the Court for Japan to the Supreme Court for China and Japan ; but the last-mentioned appeals shall not be heard except by the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, sitting with the Assistant-Judge of that Court, or, in the unavoidable absence of the Assistant-Judge, alone.

(2.) If, on any such appeal, there is a difference of opinion between the Chief Justice and the Assistant-Judge, the opinion of the Chief Justice shall prevail.

(3.) Articles 120 to 126, both inclusive, of the China and Japan Order in Council, 1865, relative to appeals to the Supreme Court for China and Japan in criminal cases, shall extend and apply to appeals to that Court in criminal cases from decisions of the Court for Japan, both in cases originally tried in the Court for Japan and in cases brought by virtue of this Order before that Court, under those Articles, by way of appeal from any Court or Officer in Japan; and, for the purposes of this Article, the Court for Japan shall, in cases so brought before it by way of appeal, be deemed to be the Court trying the case.

Judges in China and Japan.

9.—(1.) The Chief Justice and Assistant-Judge of the Supreme Court and the Judge and Assistant-Judge of the Court for Japan shall each be appointed by Her Majesty by warrant under Her Royal Sign Manual, subject and according to Article 23 of the China and Japan Order in Council, 1865.

(2.) The Chief Justice and the Judge shall each be a subject of Her Majesty by birth or naturalization, who, at the time of his appointment, is a member of the Bar of England, Scotland, or Ireland, of not less than seven years' standing.

10.—(1.) In case of the death or illness, or the absence or intended absence from the district of the Consulate of Shanghai, of the Chief Justice or of the Assistant-Judge of the Supreme Court, Her Majesty's Minister in China may appoint a fit person to be the Acting Chief Justice or to be the Acting Assistant-Judge (as the case may require); but, unless in any case the Secretary of State otherwise directs, the Assistant-Judge, if present and able to act, shall always be appointed to be Acting Chief Justice.

(2.) In case of the death or illness, or the absence or intended absence from the district of the Consulate of Kanagawa, of the Judge or of the Assistant-Judge of the Court for Japan, Her Majesty's Minister in Japan may appoint a fit person to be the Acting Judge or to be the Acting Assistant-Judge (as the case may require).

Vice-Admiralty Jurisdiction.

11. Any proceeding taken in China or Japan against one of Her Majesty's vessels, or the officer commanding the same, as such, in respect of any claim cognisable in a Court of Vice-Admiralty, shall be taken only in the Supreme Court or in the Court for Japan, under the Vice-Admiralty jurisdiction thereof respectively.

Pending Proceedings.

12. Nothing in this Order shall affect any suit or proceedings, civil or criminal, pending at the commencement of this Order, with reference either to the original proceedings therein, or to any appeal therein, or otherwise ; save that all suits and proceedings, civil or criminal, instituted or taken in the district of the Consulate of Kanagawa before and pending at the commencement of this Order are hereby transferred to the jurisdiction of the Court for Japan ; and the same may be carried on and shall be tried, heard, and determined, in and by the Court for Japan, as nearly as may be, as if the same had been instituted or taken in the district of the Consulate of Kanagawa after the commencement of this Order.

And the Most Honourable the Marquess of Salisbury, and the Right Honourable Sir Michael Edward Hicks-Beach, Baronet, two of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and the Lords Commissioners of the Treasury, and the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

C. L. Peel.

At the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight,
the 14th day of August, 1878.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the Militia (Voluntary Enlistment) Act, 1875, it is, amongst other things, enacted that Her Majesty may, with the advice of Her Privy Council, order the calling out of all or any part of the Militia to be dispensed with.

And whereas it has seemed fit to Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to dispense with the calling out of the Royal Meath Regiment of Militia, and to direct that there shall be no training and exercising thereof in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight ;

Now therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, doth hereby dispense with the calling out of the Royal Meath Regiment of Militia, and doth order and direct that there shall be no training and exercise thereof in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight ; and that this Order be published in the London Gazette.

*Board of Trade (Harbour Department),
Whitehall Gardens, September 4, 1878.*

THE Board of Trade have received the following Copy of certain Regulations which are to be enforced at Rio de Janeiro whenever yellow fever makes its appearance there, viz. :—

REGULATIONS framed in obedience to the Aviso of the Ministry of the Empire of the 5th of May, 1878.

1. The present anchorage ground to be extended so that in a time of epidemic in the port there may be a distance between one vessel and another of 500 metres.

2. The suppression of the anchorage ground of Gambôa, if not in normal times, at least in those of epidemic or during the hot months, only six vessels by way of exception being allowed to anchor there, the maximum during that period.

3. The suppression of the anchorage ground of Praia do Peixe, another spot being selected for the coast trading vessels that now anchor there.

4. The selection of an anchorage ground in a special locality for vessels bringing colonists or immigrants in the immediate neighbourhood of the Island of Bom Jesus, and the forwarding of the colonists or emigrants to their destination with the least possible delay.

5. The removal without loss of time to the Inlet of Jurujuba, or some other locality at the option of the sanitary authorities in conjunction with the Inspector of Customs, for purposes of disinfection, any vessel in which a case of yellow fever manifests itself, the cost to be defrayed by those interested.

6. The prevention, as far as possible, of the ships hailing this port, during the prevalence of yellow fever, from coming in contact with those of the infected zone, and their removal thence to a distance of at least 1,000 metres, and there distributing them in the open space in the direction of a line drawn between the Islands of Euchadas and Cobras, and with due regard to the direction of the winding blowing from the bar.

7. The discharging of merchandize, whenever possible, during the epidemic period, afloat and at some distance from the shore, so as to avoid the approach of vessels towards land.

8. The observance of the same system with reference to the articles of exportation.

9. In the event of it not being possible to proceed in accordance with clause 7, and discharging at wharfs being, in view of the nature of the merchandize, indispensable, the operation should in that case be conducted with rapidity, and with labour from the shore, and the wharfs should be those situate between Prainha and the Customs.

10. The discharging of vessels, from October onwards, during two portions of the day, from five to ten in the morning and from four to six in the evening, so as to avoid work under a scorching sun.

11. The dispensing with the presence of an officer of the ship to accompany cargo in the lighters to the Custom-house, this being an occupation which almost invariably exposes them to the contraction of the disease.

AT the Court at Balmoral, the 14th day of September, 1878.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

His Royal Highness Prince Leopold.

Marquess of Lorne.

Mr. Secretary Cross.

Sir Thomas Myddelton-Biddulph.

WHEREAS it is expedient to make provision for the exercise of the power and jurisdiction vested by Treaty in Her Majesty the Queen in and over the Island of Cyprus :

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by virtue of the powers in this behalf by the Foreign Jurisdiction Acts, 1843 to 1878, or otherwise in Her Majesty vested, is pleased by and with the advice of Her Privy Council to order, and it is ordered, as follows :—

I. There shall be a High Commissioner and

Commander-in-Chief (hereinafter called "the High Commissioner") in and over the said Island of Cyprus (hereinafter called "the said Island"), and the person who shall fill the said office of High Commissioner shall be from time to time appointed by Commission under Her Majesty's Sign-Manual and Signet.

II. The High Commissioner shall administer the government of the said Island in the name and on behalf of Her Majesty, and shall do and execute in due manner all things that shall belong to his said command and to the trust thereby reposed in him, according to the several powers and authorities granted or appointed to him by virtue of this Order, and of such Commission as may be issued to him under Her Majesty's Sign-Manual and Signet, and according to such instructions as may from time to time be given to him, under Her Majesty's Sign-Manual and Signet, or by Order of Her Majesty in Council, or by Her Majesty through one of Her Principal Secretaries of State, and according to such Laws and Ordinances as are or shall hereafter be in force in the said Island.

III. The High Commissioner shall have an Official Seal bearing the style of his office, and such device as one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State from time to time approves, and such seal shall be deemed the public seal of the said Island, and may be kept and used by the High Commissioner for the sealing of all things whatsoever that shall pass the seal of the said Island. And until a public seal shall be provided for the said Island, the seal of the High Commissioner may be used as the public seal of the said Island for sealing all things that shall pass the said seal.

IV. There shall be in the said Island a Legislative Council, constituted as hereinafter mentioned

V. It shall be lawful for the High Commissioner, with the advice of the said Legislative Council, to make all such Laws and Ordinances, as may from time to time be necessary for the peace, order, and good government of the said Island, subject, nevertheless to all such instructions as Her Majesty may from time to time issue under Her Sign-Manual and Signet for the guidance of the High Commissioner and of the said Legislative Council therein: Provided, nevertheless, that full authority is hereby reserved to Her Majesty, through one of Her Principal Secretaries of State, to confirm or disallow any such Laws and Ordinances as aforesaid in the whole or in part, and to make and establish from time to time, with the advice of Her Privy Council, all such Laws or Ordinances as may to Her appear necessary for the peace, order, and good government of the said Island as fully as if this Order has not been made.

VI. The Legislative Council for the said island shall consist of the High Commissioner for the time being, and of such other public officers and persons within the same, not being less than four or more than eight in number, as shall be named or designated for that purpose by Her Majesty, by any instruction or instructions, or warrant or warrants, to be by Her for that purpose issued under Her Sign-Manual and Signet; or shall be provisionally appointed, subject to Her Majesty's will and pleasure, by the High Commissioner, in pursuance of any instruction or instructions, warrant or warrants, under such Sign-Manual as aforesaid: Provided always that one half of the members of the said Council, other than the said High Commissioner, shall be persons holding public offices in the said Island, who shall be styled "official members," and the other half shall be inhabitants of the said Island, who shall be styled "unofficial members," and shall hold their seats at the said Council for a period of two years only, subject to reappointment for a like period as from time to time may seem fit.

VII. In case any member of the said Council shall be temporarily absent from the said Island, or incapable of acting in the exercise of his office, or in case he shall die, or from any cause shall cease to be a member of the said Council, it shall be lawful for the High Commissioner by any instrument under the seal of the Island to appoint provisionally any fit person to be an official or unofficial councillor (as the case may be) in the place of such member; and in all cases where such provisional appointment shall be made by reason of the temporary absence or incapacity of such member, so soon as he shall return to the said Island, or shall be declared by the High Commissioner capable of exercising his office of legislative councillor, the person so provisionally appointed shall cease to be a member of the said Council. Every such provisional appointment may be disallowed by Her Majesty, through one of Her Principal Secretaries of State, or may be revoked by the High Commissioner, by such instrument as aforesaid,

VIII. Every legislative councillor shall, notwithstanding anything hereinbefore contained, hold office during Her Majesty's pleasure, and whenever a councillor shall from any cause cease to hold office, the said Council may continue to transact business, and its proceedings shall be valid, notwithstanding that the proportion between the official and unofficial members may be temporarily altered, pending the appointment, provisionally or otherwise, of a new member in the place of the Councillor ceasing to hold office as aforesaid.

IX. The official members of the Council shall take precedence of the unofficial members, and shall take rank among themselves in the order of precedence of their respective public offices, or, in case of any doubt, as the High Commissioner shall direct. The unofficial members shall take rank according to the date of their appointment, or if appointed by the same instrument, according to the order in which they are named therein, unless the High Commissioner shall, in any case, otherwise direct.

X. The High Commissioner, or in his absence any member of the Council appointed by him in writing, or in default of such appointment the member present who shall stand first in order of precedence, shall preside at every meeting of the said Council. All questions brought before the Council shall be decided by the majority of the votes given, and the High Commissioner or Presiding Member shall have an original vote on all such questions, and also a casting vote if the votes shall be equally divided.

XI. Until otherwise provided by the Council no business (except that of adjournment) shall be transacted, unless there shall be present three Members of Council besides the High Commissioner or Presiding Member.

XII. The Council shall in the transaction of business and passing of laws conform as nearly as may be to such instructions under Her Majesty's Sign-Manual and Signet as may hereafter be addressed to the High Commissioner in that behalf.

XIII. Subject to such instructions the Council may make standing rules and orders for the regulation of their own proceedings.

XIV. If any Councillor shall become bankrupt or insolvent, or shall be convicted of any criminal offence, or shall absent himself from the said Island for more than three months without leave from the High Commissioner, the High Commissioner may declare in writing that his seat at the Council is vacant, and immediately on the publication of such declaration, he shall cease to be a Member of the Council.

XV. The High Commissioner may by writing under his hand and seal suspend any Councillor from the exercise of his office, proceeding therein in such manner as may from time to time be enjoined by such instructions under Her Majesty's Sign-Manual and Signet as may be addressed to the High Commissioner in that behalf.

XVI. Any unofficial Councillor may resign his office by writing under his hand, but no such resignation shall take effect until it be accepted in writing by the High Commissioner, or by Her Majesty through one of Her Principal Secretaries of State.

XVII. No Law or Ordinance made by the High Commissioner with the advice of the said Legislative Council shall take effect until the High Commissioner shall have assented thereto in the name of Her Majesty and on Her behalf, and shall have signed the same in token of such assent.

XVIII. Notwithstanding anything in this Order contained, it shall be lawful for the High Commissioner, in cases of emergency, to make and proclaim, from time to time, Ordinances for the peace, order, and good government of the said Island, subject, however, to the disallowance of the whole or any part thereof by Her Majesty through one of Her Principal Secretaries of State ; and every such Ordinance shall have like force of law with an Ordinance made by the High Commissioner with the advice of the said Legislative Council as by this Order provided, for the space of not more than six months from its promulgation, unless the disallowance of such Ordinance by Her Majesty shall be earlier signified to the High Commissioner by one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, or unless such Ordinance shall be controlled or superseded by a Law or Ordinance made by the High Commissioner with the advice of the said Legislative Council.

XIX. Any Law or Ordinance, or any part thereof, made by the High Commissioner, with the advice of the said Legislative Council, or of his own authority by Proclamation as aforesaid, which shall be disallowed by Her Majesty under the provisions hereinbefore contained, shall ceased to be of any force or effect so soon as the disallowance thereof shall be published in the said Island by the High Commissioner.

XX. The High Commissioner may make and execute in Her Majesty's name and on Her behalf, under the public seal of the said Island, grants and dispositions of any lands which may be lawfully granted or disposed of by Her Majesty within the said Island.

XXI. The High Commissioner may constitute and appoint all such Judges, Justices of the Peace, and other necessary officers in the said Island as may lawfully be appointed by Her Majesty, all of whom shall hold their offices during Her Majesty's pleasure.

XXII. The High Commissioner may, as he shall see occasion, in Her Majesty's name and on Her behalf, grant to any offender convicted of any crime in any court, or before any Judge, Justice, or Magistrate within the said Island, a free and unconditional pardon, or a pardon subject to such conditions as may at any time be lawfully thereunto annexed, or any respite of the execution of the sentence of any such offender for such period as to him may seem fit.

XXIII. The High Commissioner may, as he shall see occasion, in Her Majesty's name and on Her behalf, remit any fines, penalties, or forfeitures which may accrue or become payable to Her, provided the same do not exceed the sum of fifty pounds sterling in any one case, and may suspend the payment of any such fine, penalty, or forfeiture exceeding the said sum of fifty pounds, until Her Majesty's pleasure thereon shall be made known and signified to him.

XXIV. The High Commissioner may, upon sufficient cause to him appearing, suspend from the exercise of his office within the said Island any person exercising the same, which suspension shall continue and have effect only until Her Majesty's pleasure therein shall be made known and signified to the High Commissioner. And in proceeding to any such suspension, he is to observe the directions in that behalf given to him by any such instructions under Her Majesty's Sign-Manual and Signet as may be hereafter addressed to him.

XXV. There shall be in the said Island, for the purpose of advising the High Commissioner, an Executive Council, which shall be composed of such persons and constituted in such manner as may be directed by any instructions which may from time to time be addressed to the High Commissioner by Her Majesty, under Her Sign-Manual and Signet, and all such persons shall hold their places in the said Council during Her Majesty's pleasure; and the said Executive Council shall observe such rules in the conduct of business as may from time to time be contained in any such instructions as aforesaid.

XXVI. In the event of the death, incapacity, removal, or absence from the said Island of the High Commissioner for the time being, all and every the powers and authorities herein granted to him shall, until Her Majesty's further pleasure is signified therein, be vested in such person as may be appointed to administer the same by any instrument under Her Majesty's Sign-Manual and Signet; or if there be not in the Island any person so appointed, then in the senior military officer for the time being in command of Her Majesty's regular troops in the said Island.

XXVII. The following Orders of Her Majesty the Queen in Council, that is to say: the Order of the 12th day of December, 1873, for the Regulation of Consular Jurisdiction in the Dominions of the Sublime Porte; the Order of the 13th day of May, 1875, for the Regulation of Hospital Dues levied on British Shipping within the said Dominions; and the Order of the 26th day of October, 1875, amending the said Order of the 12th day of December, 1873, shall cease to have any force and effect in the Island of Cyprus from and after a day to be named in a proclamation to be issued in the said Island by authority of the High Commissioner, with such saving and exceptions (if any) as may be contained in such proclamation.

XXVIII. This Order shall commence and have effect as follows:—

- (a.) As to the appointment of the High Commissioner, and the issue of any instructions immediately from and after the making of this Order.
- (b.) As to all other matters and provisions comprised and contained in this Order immediately from and after a day to be named in any Proclamation to be issued in the said Island by authority of the High Commissioner.

And this Order shall remain in force until the same shall be revoked or altered by Her Majesty with the advice of Her Privy Council.

And the Most Honourable the Marquis of Salisbury and the Right Honourable Viscount Cranbrook, two of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and the Lords Commissioners of the Treasury, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

C. L. Peel.

*Board of Trade (Harbour Department),
Whitehall Gardens, October 1, 1878.*

THE Board of Trade have received through the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs a copy of a Despatch from Her Majesty's Consul at Galveston, reporting that in consequence of epidemic yellow fever prevailing in the State of Louisiana and elsewhere, the Galveston Board of Health have passed the following resolutions :—

1. Vessels from West Indian Ports will not be allowed to enter the port of Galveston until quarantine is raised.
2. Vessels from European Ports, not having touched at West Indian or other infected ports, and not having passed nearer than three miles of the outer bar of the Mississippi River, and not having communicated with a pilot boat or other boat, otherwise than by flag signal, or trumpet, will be admitted, subject to the regulations existing at Galveston at the time of their arrival.

It is anticipated that, if no outbreak of yellow fever occurs at Galveston, quarantine will be maintained there until December.

Marine Department, Board of Trade,
October 18, 1878.

NOTICE.—EMIGRATION TO GUATEMALA.

THE Board of Trade have received through Secretary of State for the Colonies the following translation of a Decree of the Government of Guatemala affecting immigrants into that country :—

Decree No. 216.

J. R. BARRIOS, General of Division, and President of the Republic of Guatemala, considering

1st. That the Decree of the 2nd of Mardi of the present year determines that all immigrants who may come to the Republic at the expense or assisted by the Government must renounce their nationality and all their rights as foreigners at the first port of the Republic they touch.

2nd. That these provisions may offer difficulties because some immigrants may refuse to make this renouncement after having received the said funds or assistance. I decree

ART. 1. The renouncement of nationality and rights of foreigners shall be made at the place of departure of those who with the aid of funds or assistance of the Government of Guatemala, shall immigrate to this Republic, the same being carried into effect in accordance with the laws of the nation to which the said immigrants may belong, and shall be ratified before the Consuls or Consular Agents of Guatemala, exhibiting to them the document that may have been granted authorising them to renounce their nationality.

ART. 2. The foreigners who without having renounced their nationality at the place of their departure shall arrive on the territory of Guatemala, and who may wish to obtain lands or other advantages from this Government, shall before obtaining them renounce their nationality before the Minister, Chargé d'Affaires or Consul of their nation, and ratify it before the Governor of the Department they are in, presenting to him the document that to that purpose may have been granted to them.

ART. 3. After having passed a year in the territory of Guatemala from the date of their renouncement, immigrants may solicit from the Government a certificate of citizenship, and this shall be granted to those who during that period have conducted themselves well.

Given at the National Palace at Guatemala, the 19th of August, 1878.

FROM THE
LONDON GAZETTE of NOVEMBER 1, 1878.

Foreign Office, November 1, 1878.

THE Marquis of Salisbury, K.G., Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, has received the following Despatch from Her Majesty's Ambassador in Paris:—

MY LORD, Paris, October 18, 1878.

MONSIEUR WADDINGTON said to me this afternoon that he attached very great importance to securing the co-operation of the French and English houses of Rothschild in placing the finances of Egypt on a sound and satisfactory footing. He had, he told me, spoken very strongly in this sense to Baron Alphonse de Rothschild, the head of the Paris house, and he went on to say that Baron Alphonse had insisted on the necessity of some countenance and support being given by the French and English Governments to the arrangements to be made with regard to the Daira lands which were to be the security for the advances to be made to the Egyptian Government.

Baron Alphonse de Rothschild had (M. Waddington went on to say) suggested an arrangement which had originated with the London house, and which would it appeared be accepted by both the London and Paris houses. This arrangement seemed to M. Waddington to be free from objection, and he wished to recommend it to Her Majesty's Government.

Accordingly, he would request me to convey to your Lordship a proposal from him, that the British and French Governments should assent to the following arrangement, that is to say: "That the Frenchman and Englishman, who are on the Board of Management of the Daira lands, shall be nominated by the two Governments, and these two nominees shall manage the estates with an Egyptian, collect and remit the rents to the Rothschilds."

I have, &c.,

(Signed) LYONS.

The Marquis of Salisbury, K.G.

Foreign Office,

MY LORD, October 24, 1878.

I HAVE received your Excellency's Despatch of the 18th instant conveying a proposition made to you by M. Waddington that the Daira lands, which have been recently surrendered by the family of the Khedive, and which are to be mortgaged as security for the new Egyptain loan, shall be managed by a Commission of three, which shall consist of an Egyptian, of a Commissioner nominated by the English Government, and a Commissioner nominated by the French Government. It is proposed that this Commission shall receive the rents of the mortgaged property, and shall remit the proceeds to Messrs. Rothschild so far as shall be necessary to cover the interest and sinking fund of the new loan.

I have to inform you in reply that Her Majesty's Government accede to the proposal of the French Government.

But they think it desirable to point out that in doing so they do not accept any liability to pay in any contingency interest or sinking fund of this loan. They undertake the proposed nomination in order to furnish to the holders of the loan a security that the person nominated shall not be divested of his functions without their previous assent.

I am, &c.,

(Signed) SALISBURY.

His Excellency Lord Lyons, G.C.B.

Foreign Office, September 23, 1878.

The Queen has been graciously pleased to appoint Captain George Chaworth Musters, R.N., to be Her Majesty's Consul for the Portuguese Possessions on the East Coast of Africa, to reside at Mozambique.

Foreign Office, October 5, 1878.

The Queen has been graciously pleased to appoint James Zohrab, Esq., late Her Majesty's Consul at Erzeroum, to be Her Majesty's Consul at Jeddah.

Crown Office, October 30, 1878.

MEMBER returned to serve in the present PARLIAMENT.

Borough of Peterborough.

The Honourable William John Wentworth Fitzwilliam, in the place of George Hammond Whalley, Esq., deceased.

(H. 6490.)

*Board of Trade (Harbour Department),
Whitehall Gardens, October 30, 1878.*

THE Board of Trade have received through the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs a copy of a Despatch from Her Majesty's Consul at Puerto Rico, stating that in consequence of yellow fever at St. Thomas, a quarantine of ten days will be imposed upon all vessels arriving from thence, but that mail steamers from Europe, which transfer their mails and passengers without communicating with the island, will be exempt from such quarantine.

(H. 6867).

*Board of Trade (Harbour Department),
Whitehall Gardens, October 31, 1878.*

THE Board of Trade have received through the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs a copy of a Despatch from Her Majesty's Consul at Tenerife, enclosing the following extracts from a Royal Spanish Decree of the 30th November, 1872, respecting the sanitary treatment to which vessels arriving in Spain are liable :—

“Ships arriving from unhealthy or suspected “ ports, or that convert through any circumstances
 “ their original clean bills of health into foul ones, “ although they may effect discharges in other
 “ clean ports, or complete their voyage, preserve
 “ in principle the foul bills of health and character “ of the said compromised ports they started from
 “ as long as they have not purified themselves “ either abroad or in Spain according to the “ quarantine which is required by our laws.”

“Every vessel arriving from an unhealthy or “ suspected port, or that may have been admitted
 “ to pratique in other intermediate ports of the same “ description, which, as soon as a complete dis“ charge shall be effected in a clean port without “ the quarantine cleansing established by our laws
 “ and not communicating afterwards in any sus“ pected or foul port, sails with a new cargo not “ contagious or in ballast for our ports, if she “ arrive with a clean bill of health, good hygienic “ conditions, and without any suspicious incident
 “ on board, may be submitted to three days’
 “ observation with ventilation and fumigations.”

The same treatment is applicable to a vessel which, leaving in ballast unhealthy or suspected ports and without touching at compromised ports, shall proceed to Spain, arriving with the same conditions as above pointed out.

The Decree in question is still operative and its provisions appear to be literally enforced in the Canary Islands.

CORRESPONDENCE with the Chinese Minister at this Court, respecting the recent famine :—

FAMINE IN NORTHERN PROVINCES OF CHINA.

No. 1.

Kuo-ta-jên to the Marquis of Salisbury.

Chinese Legation, 45, Portland-place,

MY LORD, October 14, 1878.

I HAVE been instructed by the Tsung-li Yamên and the Grand Secretary Li to request that your Lordship will have the goodness to present to the subscribers of the China Famine Fund the grateful acknowledgment of the Chinese Government for the generous alacrity with which, on hearing of the fearful calamity which had befallen the northern provinces of China, they hastened to the assistance of the suffering population.

The noble philanthropy which heard, in a far-distant country, the cry of suffering, and hastened to its assistance, is too signal a recognition of the common brotherhood of humanity ever to be forgotten, and is all the more worthy of being remembered because it was not a mere passing response to a generous emotion, but a continued effort, persevered in until, in sending the welcome rain, Heaven gave the assuring promise of returning plenty, and the sign that the brotherly succour was no longer required.

Coming from Englishmen residing in all parts of the world, this spontaneous act of generosity made a deep impression on the Government and people of China, which cannot but have the effect of more closely cementing the friendly relations which now so happily exist between China and the Government and the people of this country. But the hand that gave also assumed the arduous duty of administering the relief; and here I would not forget to offer my grateful thanks and condolence to the families of those (and they are not a few) who nobly fell in distributing the fund.

To Englishmen in all parts of the world I beg to offer, through your Lordship, the thanks of the Government and people of China for the generous assistance afforded by them in a time of great calamity; but I more especially desire to thank his Grace the Archbishop of Canterbury, Sir Thomas Wade, Sir Rutherford Alcock, the Governor of Hong Kong, and the various missionary societies who inaugurated the China Famine Fund, supported it with their influence, and advanced it by their strenuous exertions.

Trusting that your Lordship will convey to them this acknowledgment of the Chinese Government, I beg, &c.

(Signed) KUO SUNG-TAO.

No. 2.

The Marquis of Salisbury to Kuo-ta-jên.

SIR, Foreign Office, October 25, 1878.

I HAVE the honour to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 14th instant, conveying to me an expression of the grateful acknowledgments of the Chinese Government for the assistance rendered by Englishmen in all parts of the world towards relieving distress in the districts of China recently stricken by famine ; and I beg leave to acquaint you, in reply, that I shall have great pleasure in communicating such acknowledgments to the persons who were instrumental in establishing the fund for the relief of the suffering population in China.

I am, &c.,
(Signed) SALISBURY.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 27th day of November, 1878.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament made and passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for amending the Law relating to the Extradition of Criminals," and also by an Act of Parliament made and passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the thirty-sixth and thirty-seventh years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to amend the Extradition Act, 1870," it was amongst other things enacted, that where an arrangement has been made with any foreign State with respect to the surrender to such State of any fugitive criminals, Her Majesty may, by Order in Council, direct that the said Acts shall apply in the case of such foreign State; and that Her Majesty may, by the same or any subsequent Order, limit the operation of the Order, and restrict the same to fugitive criminals who are in or suspected of being in the part of Her Majesty's dominions specified in the Order, and render the operation thereof subject to such conditions, exceptions, and qualifications as may be deemed expedient:

And whereas a Treaty was concluded on the fourth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight, between Her Majesty and the King of Spain, for the Mutual Extradition of Fugitive Criminals, which Treaty is in the terms following :—

HER Majesty the Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and His Majesty the King of Spain, having judged it expedient, with a view to the better administration of justice and the prevention of crime, that persons charged with, or convicted of the crimes hereinafter enumerated, and being fugitives from justice, should, under certain circumstances, be reciprocally delivered up, have resolved to conclude the present Treaty, and have appointed as their Plenipotentiaries, namely :—

Her Majesty the Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, the Right Honourable Robert Arthur Talbot Gascoyne Cecil, Marquis and Earl of Salisbury, Viscount Cranborne, Dorset, and Baron Cecil of Essendine, a Peer of the United Kingdom; a Member of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, Her Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs :—

And His Majesty the King of Spain, Don Manuel Rancés y Villanueva, Marquis of Casa-Laiglesia, a Senator of the Kingdom, Knight Grand Cross of the Royal and Distinguished Order of Charles III, and Knight of the First Class of the Civil Order of Beneficence of Spain ; Knight Grand Cross of the Papal Order of Gregory the Great ; Knight of the First Class of the Royal Order of the Red Eagle of Prussia ; Knight Grand Cross of the Royal Orders of the Crown of Italy, of Frederick of Wurtemberg, and of Albert the Valorous of Saxony ; of the Grand Ducal Orders of Philip the Magnanimous of Hesse-Darmstadt, of the White Hawk of Saxe-

Weimar, of the Crown of Vandalia of Mecklenburgh-Schwerin, and of the Ducal Order of Adolphus of Nassau; Knight Grand Cross of the Lion and the Sun of Persia, &c., His Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary to Her Majesty the Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland;

Who, after having communicated to each other their respective full powers, and found them in good and due form, have agreed upon the following articles:—

ARTICLE I.

Her Majesty the Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland engages to deliver up, under the circumstances and on the conditions stipulated in the present Treaty, all persons, and His Majesty the King of Spain engages to deliver up, under the like circumstances and conditions, all persons, excepting his own subjects, who, having been charged with, or convicted by the Tribunals of one of the two High Contracting Parties, of the crimes or offences enumerated in Article II, committed in the territory of the one party, and who shall be found within the territory of the other.

ARTICLE II.

The extradition shall be reciprocally granted for the following crimes or offences:—

1. Murder (including assassination, parricide, infanticide, poisoning, or attempt to murder).
2. Manslaughter.
3. Administering drugs or using instruments with intent to procure the miscarriage of women.
4. Rape.
5. Aggravated or indecent assault. Carnal knowledge of a girl under the age of 10 years;

carnal knowledge of a girl above the age of 10 years and under the age 12 years; indecent assault upon any female, or any attempt to have carnal knowledge of a girl under 12 years of age.

6. Kidnapping and false imprisonment, child-stealing, abandoning, exposing, or unlawfully detaining children.

7. Abduction of minors.

8. Bigamy.

9. Wounding, or inflicting grievous bodily harm.

10. Assaulting a magistrate or peace or public officer.

11. Threats by letter or otherwise with intent to extort money or other things of value.

12. Perjury, or subornation of perjury.

13. Arson.

14. Burglary or housebreaking, robbery with violence, larceny or embezzlement.

15. Fraud by a bailee, banker, agent, factor, trustee, director, member, or public officer of any company, made criminal by any law for the time being in force.

16. Obtaining money, valuable security, or goods by false pretences; receiving any money, valuable security, or other property, knowing the same to have been unlawfully obtained.

17. (a) Counterfeiting or altering money, or bringing into circulation counterfeited or altered money;

(b) Forgery, or counterfeiting or altering or uttering what is forged, counterfeited, or altered;

(c) Knowingly making without lawful authority any instrument, tool, or engine adapted and intended for the counterfeiting of coin of the realm.

18. Crimes against Bankruptcy Law.

19. Any malicious act done with intent to endanger persons in a railway train.

20. Malicious injury to property, if such offence be indictable.

21. Crimes committed at sea.

(a) Piracy by the law of nations.

(b) Sinking or destroying a vessel at sea, or attempting or conspiring to do so.

(c) Revolt or conspiracy to revolt by two or more persons on board a ship on the high seas against the authority of the master.

(d) Assault on board a ship on the high seas with intent to destroy life, or to do grievous bodily harm.

22. Dealing in slaves in such manner as to constitute an offence against the laws of both countries.

The extradition is also to take place for participation in any of the aforesaid crimes as an accessory before or after the fact, provided such participation be punishable by the laws of both Contracting Parties.

ARTICLE III.

The present Treaty shall apply to crimes and offences committed prior to the signature of the Treaty; but a person surrendered shall not be tried for any crime or offence committed in the other country before the extradition, other than the crime for which his surrender has been granted.

ARTICLE IV.

No person shall be surrendered if the offence in respect of which his surrender is demanded is one of a political character, or if he prove to the satisfaction of the competent authority of the State in which he is that the requisition for his surrender has in fact been made with a view to try or punish him for an offence of a political character.

ARTICLE V.

In the States of His Majesty the King of Spain, excepting the provinces or possessions beyond sea, the proceedings for demanding and obtaining the extradition shall be as follows :—

The Diplomatic Representative of Great Britain shall send to the Minister for Foreign Affairs (Ministro de Estado) with the demand for extradition, an authenticated and legalized copy of the sentence or of the warrant of arrest against the person accused, clearly showing the crime or offence for which proceedings are taken against the fugitive. This judicial document shall be accompanied, if possible, by a description of the person claimed, and any other information or particulars that may serve to identify him.

These documents shall be communicated by the Minister for Foreign Affairs to the Minister of Grace and Justice, by whose Department, after examining the documents and finding that there is reason for the extradition, a Royal Order will be issued granting it, and directing the arrest of the person claimed and his delivery to the British authorities.

In virtue of the said Royal Order the Minister of the Interior (Ministro de la Gobernacion) will adopt the fitting measures for the arrest of the fugitive, and when this has taken place, the person claimed shall be placed at the disposal of the Diplomatic Representative who has demanded his extradition, and he shall be taken to the part of the frontier or to the seaport where the Agent appointed for the purpose by Her Britannic Majesty's Government is ready to take charge of him.

In case the documents furnished by the said Government for the identification of the person claimed, or the information obtained by the Spanish authorities for the same purpose, should be considered insufficient, immediate notice thereof shall be given to the Diplomatic Representative of Great Britain, and the person under arrest shall be detained under the British Government shall have furnished fresh evidence to prove his identity or to clear up any other difficulty relative to the examination and decision of the affair.

ARTICLE VI.

In the dominions of Her Britannic Majesty, other than the Colonies or Foreign Possessions of Her Majesty, the manner of proceeding, in order to demand and obtain extradition, shall be as follows :—

(A.) In the case of a person accused—The requisition for the surrender shall be made to Her Britannic Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs by the Diplomatic Representative of His Majesty the King of Spain. The said demand shall be accompanied by a warrant of arrest or other equivalent judicial document, issued by a Judge or Magistrate duly authorized to take cognizance of the acts charged against the accused in Spain, and duly authenticated depositions or statements taken on oath before such Judge or Magistrate, clearly setting forth the said acts, and containing a description of the person claimed, and any particulars which may serve to identify him.

The said Principal Secretary of State shall transmit such documents to Her Britannic Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, who shall then, by order under his hand and seal, signify to some Police Magistrate in London that such requisition has been made, and require him, if there be due cause, to issue his warrant for the apprehension of the fugitive. On the receipt of such order from the Secretary of State, and on the production of such evidence as would, in the opinion of the Magistrate, justify the issue of the warrant if the crime had been committed in the United Kingdom, he shall issue his warrant accordingly.

When the person claimed shall have been apprehended, he shall be brought before the Magistrate who issued the warrant, or some other Police Magistrate in London. If the evidence to be then produced shall be such as to justify, according to the law of England, the committal for trial of the prisoner, if the crime of which he is accused had been committed in the United Kingdom, the Police Magistrate shall commit him to prison to await the warrant of the Secretary of State for his surrender; sending immediately to the Secretary of State a certificate of the committal and a report upon the case.

After the expiration of a period from the committal of the prisoner, which shall never be less than fifteen days, the Secretary of State shall, by order under his hand and seal, order the fugitive criminal to be surrendered to such person as may be duly authorized to receive him on the part of the Spanish Government.

(B.) In the case of a person convicted—The course of proceeding shall be the same as above indicated, except that the warrant to be transmitted by the Diplomatic Representative of Spain in support of his requisition shall clearly set forth the crime or offence of which the person claimed has been convicted, and state the place and date of his conviction.

The evidence to be produced before the Police Magistrate shall be such as would, according to the law of England, prove that the prisoner was convicted of the crime charged.

(C.) Persons convicted by judgment in default or arrêt de contumace, shall be, in the matter of extradition, considered as persons accused, and, as such, be surrendered.

(D.) After the Police Magistrate shall have committed the accused or convicted person to prison to await the order of a Secretary of State for his surrender, such person shall have the right to apply for a writ of habeas corpus ; if he should so apply, his surrender must be deferred until after the decision of the Court upon the return to the writ, and even then can only take place if the decision is adverse to the applicant. In the latter case the Court may at once order his delivery to the person authorized to receive him, without the order of a Secretary of State for his surrender, or commit him to prison to await such order.

ARTICLE VII.

Warrants, depositions, or statements on oath, issued or taken in the dominions of either of the two High Contracting Parties, and copies thereof, and certificates of or judicial documents stating the facts of conviction, shall be received in evidence in proceedings in the dominions of the other, if purporting to be signed or certified by a Judge, Magistrate, or officer of the country where they were issued or taken, provided such warrants, depositions, statements, copies, certificates, and judicial documents are authenticated by the oath of some witness, or by being sealed with the official seal or the Minister of Justice, or some other Minister of State.

ARTICLE VIII.

A fugitive criminal may be apprehended under a warrant issued by any Police Magistrate, Justice of the Peace, or other competent authority in either country, on such information or complaint, and such evidence, or after such proceedings as would, in the opinion of the authority issuing the warrant, justify the issue of a warrant if the crime had been committed or the person convicted in that part of the dominions of the two Contracting Parties in which the Magistrate, Justice of the Peace, or other competent authority exercises jurisdiction: provided, however, that, in the United Kingdom, the accused shall, in such case, be sent as speedily as possible before a Police Magistrate in London. He shall, in accordance with this Article, be discharged, as well in Spain as in the United Kingdom, if, within the term of thirty days, a requisition for extradition shall not have been made by the Diplomatic Agent of his country, in accordance with the stipulations of this Treaty.

The same rule shall apply to the cases of persons accused or convicted of any of the crimes or offences specified in this Treaty, and committed on the high seas on board any vessel of either country which may come into a port of the other.

ARTICLE IX.

If the fugitive criminal who has been committed to prison be not surrendered and conveyed away within two months after such committal, or within two months after the adverse decision of the Court upon the return to a writ of habeas corpus in the United Kingdom, he shall be discharged from custody, unless sufficient cause be shown to the contrary.

ARTICLE X.

In the Provinces beyond sea, Colonies and other Possessions beyond sea of the two High Contracting Parties, the manner of proceeding shall be as follows :—

The requisition for extradition of the fugitive criminal who has taken refuge in an over-sea Province, Colony, or Possession of either of the the two Contracting Parties, shall be made to the Governor or chief authority of such Province, Colony, or Possession by the chief Consular Officer of the other State in such Province, Colony, or Possession ; or, if the fugitive has escaped from an over-sea Province, Colony, or Possession of the State on whose behalf the extradition is demanded, by the Governor or chief authority of such Province, Colony, or Possession.

In these cases the provisions of this Treaty shall be observed as far as possible by the respective Governors or chief authorities, who, however, shall be at liberty either to grant the extradition or to refer the decision of the matter to the Governments of their respective countries.

ARTICLE XI.

In cases where it may be necessary, the Spanish Government shall be represented at the English Courts by the Law Officers of the Crown, and the English Government in the Spanish Court by the Public Prosecutor (Ministerio Fiscal).

The respective Governments will give assistance to the Diplomatic Representatives who claim their intervention for the custody and security of the persons subject to extradition.

ARTICLE XII.

The claim for extradition shall not be complied with if the individual claimed has been already tried for the same offence in the country whence the extradition is demanded, or if, since the commission of the acts charged, the accusation or the conviction, exemption from prosecution or punishment has been acquired by lapse of time, according to the laws of that country.

ARTICLE XIII.

If the individual claimed by one of the two High Contracting Parties, in pursuance of the present Treaty should be also claimed by one or several other powers, on account of other crimes or offences committed upon their respective territories, his extradition shall be granted to that State whose demand is earliest in date ; unless any other arrangement should exist between the different Governments to determine the preference, either on account of the gravity of the crime or offence, or for any other reason.

ARTICLE XIV.

If the individual claimed should be under prosecution, or have been condemned for a crime or offence committed in the country where he may have taken refuge, his surrender may be deferred until he shall have been set at liberty in due course at law.

In case he should be proceeded against or detained in such country, on account of obligations contracted towards private individuals, the extradition shall nevertheless take place.

ARTICLE XV.

Every article found in the possession of the individual claimed at the time of his arrest, shall, if the competent authority so decide, be seized, in order to be delivered up with his person at the time when the extradition takes place. Such delivery shall not be limited to the property or articles obtained by stealing or by fraudulent bankruptcy, but shall extend to every thing that may serve as proof of the crime or offence, and shall take place even when the extradition, after having been granted, cannot be carried out by reason of the escape or death of the individual claimed.

The rights of third parties with regard to the said property or articles are nevertheless reserved.

ARTICLE XVI.

The High Contracting Parties renounce any claim for the reimbursement of the expenses incurred by them in the arrest and maintenance of the person to be surrendered, and his conveyance as far as the frontier ; they reciprocally agree to bear such expenses themselves.

ARTICLE XVII.

The present Treaty shall be ratified and the ratifications shall be exchanged at London as soon as possible.

It shall come into operation ten days after its publication, in conformity with the laws of the respective countries, and each of the Contracting Parties may at any time terminate the Treaty on giving to the other six months' notice of its intention to do so.

In witness whereof the respective Plenipotentiaries have signed the same, and have affixed thereto the seals of their arms.

Done at London, the fourth day of June, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight.

LAIGLESIA.

And whereas the ratifications of the said Treaty were exchanged at London on the twenty-first instant :

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, and in virtue of the authority committed to Her by the said recited Acts, doth order, and it is hereby ordered, that from and after the ninth day of December, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight, the said Acts shall apply in the case of the said Treaty with the King of Spain.

The Queen was this day pleased to confer the honour of Knighthood on Frederick Leighton, Esq., President of the Royal Academy of Arts.

(M. 17361.)

*Board of Trade, Whitehall Gardens,
November 29, 1878.*

THE Queen has been graciously pleased to confer the Albert Medal of the Second Class on—

ANTHONY GERRIGHTY, Private, Royal Marines.

The following is an account of the services in respect of which this decoration has been conferred :—

On the night of the 27th July last, at 10 P.M., a lunatic named Field, on his passage home in the transport ship “Baron Colonsay,” of Greenock, broke away from the sentry in the sick berth and climbed to the fore topgallant-yard. Men were sent aloft to try and prevent his falling, but on their approach he struck one of them on the head.

After remaining aloft all night calling "murder," &c., he came down about 5 A.M., on the 28th. The sentries that were placed to watch him then tried to secure him but he jumped overboard. GERRIGHTY instantly jumped after him and though struck at with a knife which Field had in his hand, succeeded in rescuing him.

This occurrence took place in latitude $36^{\circ} 26'$ N., longitude $2^{\circ} 52'$ W., the ship going eight knots and a fresh breeze blowing.

FROM THE
LONDON GAZETTE of DECEMBER 3, 1878.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 27th day of November, 1878.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Order of Her Majesty in Council, dated the 20th day of November, 1873, Her Majesty was pleased, under or by virtue of the provisions of "the Medical Act," by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to nominate and appoint Richard Quain, Esquire, M.D., F.R.S., to be a Member of the General Council of Medical Education and Registration of the United Kingdom :

And whereas under or by virtue of the provisions of the said Act, the said Richard Quain ceased to be a Member of the said General Council on the 20th day of November instant :

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, doth, under and by virtue of the provisions in that behalf contained in the said "Medical Act," nominate and appoint the said Richard Quain to be again, for the term of five years from this 27th day of November instant, a Member of the said General Council of Medical Education and Registration of the United Kingdom.

C. L. Peel.

At the Court at Windsor, the 27th day of November, 1878.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.
Lord President.
Lord Privy Seal.
Mr. Secretary Cross.

WHEREAS by section 18 of "The Extradition Act, 1870," it is among other things enacted, "that if by any law made after the passing of the said Act by the Legislature of any British Possession, provision is made for carrying into effect within such possession the surrender of fugitive criminals who are in, or suspected of being in such British Possession, Her Majesty may, by the Order in Council applying the said Act in the case of any Foreign State, or by any subsequent Order, either

Suspend the operation within any such British Possession of the said Act, or of any part thereof, so far as it relates to such Foreign State, and so long as such law continues in force there and no longer ;

Or direct that such Law or Ordinance or any part thereof shall have effect in such British Possession with or without modifications and alterations, as if it were part of the Act :

And whereas by an Act enacted by the Legislature of Barbadoes, the short title of which is "The Extradition Act of Barbadoes, 1878," it is provided that "all powers vested in and acts authorised or required to be done by a Police Magistrate, or any Justice of the Peace in relation to the surrender of Fugitive Criminals in the United Kingdom 'under the Extradition Acts, 1870 and 1873,' are thereby vested in and may in the Island be exercised and done by any Resident Police Magistrate in relation to the Surrender of Fugitive Criminals under the said Acts."

And whereas it is further provided by the said Act that the said Act shall not come into operation until Her Majesty shall by Order in Council direct that the said Act shall have effect within the Island as if it were part of the "Extradition Act, 1870," but that the said Act shall thereafter come into operation as soon as such Order in Council shall have been publicly made known in the Island ;

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, in pursuance of "The Extradition Act, 1870," and in exercise of the power in that behalf in the said Act contained, doth by this present Order, by and with the advice of Her Majesty's Privy Council, direct that the said Act shall have effect in the Island of Barbadoes, without modification or alteration, as if it were part of "The Extradition Act, 1870."

And the Right Honourable Sir Michael Edward Hicks-Beach, Bart., one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, is to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

C. L. Peel.

At the Court at Windsor, the 27th day of

At the Court at Windsor, the 27th day of November, 1878.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by section one of "The Trade Marks Registration Extension Act, 1877," 40 and 41 Victoria, cap. 37, it is enacted that in so far as relates to the registration of trade marks used in the textile industries, but not further or otherwise, section one of the 'Trade Marks Registration Amendment Act, 1876, shall be construed as if for the words "from and after the first day of July, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-seven, there were substituted the words "from and after the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight, or such further time as Her Majesty may by Order in Council determine."

Whereas by an Order in Council, bearing date the 12th day of December, 1877, Her Majesty by and with the advice of Her Privy Council was pleased, in accordance with the above-recited enactment, to prolong till the 30th day of June, 1878, the time for the registration of trade marks used in the textile industries.

And whereas by another Order in Council, bearing date the 29th day of June, 1878, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, was pleased, in accordance with the above-recited enactment, further to prolong till the 31st day of December, 1878, the time for the registration of such trade marks as aforesaid.

And whereas it is deemed expedient that in so far as regards that portion of the trade marks used in the textile industries which is applied to cotton piece goods, such time should be further extended beyond the said 31st day of December, 1878 :

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased, in accordance with the above-recited enactment, to prolong till the 31st day of May, 1879, the time for the registration of trade marks applied to cotton piece goods.

FROM THE
LONDON GAZETTE of DECEMBER 6,
1878.

Her Majesty's Most Gracious Speech, delivered by the Lords Commissioners, to both Houses of Parliament, on Thursday, December 5, 1878.

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

I REGRET that I have been obliged to call for your attendance at an unusual and, probably, to most of you, an inconvenient season.

The hostility towards my Indian Government manifested by the Ameer of Afghanistan, and the manner in which he repulsed my friendly Mission, left me no alternative but to make a peremptory demand for redress.

This demand having been disregarded, I have directed an expedition to be sent into his territory, and I have taken the earliest opportunity of calling you together, and making to you the communication required by law.

I have directed that papers on the subject shall be laid before you.

I receive from all foreign Powers assurances of their friendly feelings, and I have every reason to believe that the arrangements for the pacification of Europe, made by the Treaty of Berlin, will be successfully carried into effect.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons,

The Estimates for the ensuing year are in course of preparation, and will in due time be submitted to you.

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

I propose that after full deliberation upon the matters which have led me to anticipate your usual time of meeting, and after a suitable recess, you should proceed to the consideration of various measures for the public benefit which will then be laid before you.

I confidently commit to your wisdom the great interests of my Empire, and I pray that the blessing of Almighty God may attend your counsels.

At the Court at Windsor, the 27th day of November, 1878.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

HER Majesty in Council was this day pleased to declare Her Consent to a Contract of Matrimony between His Royal Highness the Prince Ernest Augustus William Adolphus George Frederick, Duke of Cumberland and Teviotdale, Earl of Armagh, Knight of the Most Noble Order of the Garter, and Her Royal Highness the Princess Thyra Amélie Caroline Charlotte Anne, daughter of His Majesty the King of Denmark, which consent Her Majesty has also caused to be signified under the Great Seal.

Whitehall, November 29, 1878.

The Queen has been pleased to grant unto William Dudley Waddell, of the Hough Cottage, in the parish of Forebridge, in the county of Stafford, Clerk, Master of Arts of the University of Cambridge, and Resident Minister of the Chapel of St. John, in the parish of St. Marylebone, in the county of Middlesex, Her Royal licence and authority that he and his issue may take and henceforth use the surname of Dudley in addition to and after that of Waddell :

And to command that the said Royal concession and declaration be recorded in Her Majesty's College of Arms, otherwise to be void and of none effect.

*Board of Trade, Whitehall Gardens,
December 6, 1878.*

THE Queen has been graciously pleased to confer the Albert Medal of the Second Class on—

Mr. WILLIAM BUYERS, late Second Mate of the ship "Harlaw," of Aberdeen.

The following is an account of the services in respect of which this decoration has been conferred :—

On 31st July, 1878, the “Harlaw,” when on a voyage from Sydney to Shanghai, struck on the Tung Sha Bank, in latitude $31^{\circ} 10' N.$, longitude $122^{\circ} 15' E.$, and soon after became a total wreck. The boats were got ready, and WILLIAM BUYERS, Second Mate, was ordered by the Captain into the quarter boat, the dingy, which was to remain by the ship. The steward, four seamen, one of whom was Thomas Lawrie, A.B., and three apprentices, got into the boat, in addition to the Second Mate, making nine in all. Owing to the strong tide that was running and the heavy sea, the boat was obliged to be loosed from the ship. The boat was therefore kept near the ship, head to wind. One other boat was seen to leave the ship and run before the wind, and then the ship was shut out from the sight of those in the dingy by squalls of wind and rain.

When the ship was again seen from the dingy, the two other boats had left her, and she was swinging round; and before the dingy reached her, she fell over. A box of Indian corn flour was picked up, and the second mate swam on board the wreck, cut the jib sheet adrift, and brought it back to the boat.

The dingy was then run before the wind, and at sundown the Gutzlaff Lightship was sighted but they failed to reach it. In attempting to keep the boat's head to sea, and towards the light during the night she shipped two heavy seas and capsized. The crew in their efforts to clamber up on the bottom of the boat, caused her to turn round like a cask, and one by one the men and boys dropped off her. The Second Mate was seized by the Steward, but managed to extricate himself after being dragged down some depth. When he again reached the boat, he found Lawrie alone. Early in the morning Lawrie was washed off, when BUYERS at great risk to his life swam to his assistance, and with difficulty brought him back to the boat. They then managed to right the boat and got inside her. Lawrie was, however, washed out of the boat by a heavy sea, but BUYERS again saved his life and pulled him back into the boat by means of one of the boards at the bottom of the boat. Soon after, when close to the light, the two survivors were picked up by a junk, were kindly treated, and landed at Shanghai.

THE Queen has been graciously pleased to confer the "Albert Medal of the First Class" on—

MARK ADDY, of Salford.

Statement of the case of MARK ADDY, to whom the Albert Medal of the First Class has been granted in recognition of his repeated acts of heroism in saving life from drowning in the River Irwell.

MARK ADDY, a well-known oarsman and sculler, has resided all his life on the banks of the polluted River Irwell; his father and brothers having followed the trade of Boat Builders.

During a period of about twenty-five years, he has, under circumstances of imminent peril, both from the violence of the river and the pestilential nature of its waters, saved no fewer than six-and-thirty lives, several of the cases having occurred subsequently to the date of the creation of the said Order.

For his heroic efforts and conspicuous gallantry, he has, at various times, received the following distinctions:—

The Bronze Medal of the Royal Humane Society.

The Silver Medal of the Salford Humane Society.

The Gold Medal of the Salford Humane Society.

An illuminated Address setting forth his Badges of Honour from the Salford Humane Society.

A purse of 200 guineas and an illuminated Address from the inhabitants of Salford.

FROM THE SUPPLEMENT
TO THE
LONDON GAZETTE of DECEMBER 27,
1878.

Whitehall, December 27, 1878.

THE following Letter from The Queen has this day been received by the Right Honourable the Secretary of State for the Home Department :—

Osborne, December 26, 1878.

THE Queen is anxious to take the earliest opportunity of expressing publicly Her heartfelt thanks for the universal and most touching sympathy shown to Her by all classes of Her loyal and faithful subjects on the present occasion, when it has pleased God to call away from this world Her dearly-beloved Daughter, The Princess Alice, Grand Duchess of Hesse.

Overwhelmed with grief at the loss of a dear Child, who was a bright example of loving tenderness, courageous devotion, and self-sacrifice to duty, it is most soothing to The Queen's feelings to see how entirely Her grief is shared by Her people. The Queen's deeply-afflicted Son-in-law, the Grand Duke of Hesse, is also anxious to make known his sincere gratitude for the kind feelings expressed towards himself and his dear Children in their terrible bereavement, and his gratification at the appreciation shown by the people of England of the noble and endearing qualities of her whom all now mourn.

Seventeen years ago, at this very time, when a similar bereavement crushed The Queen's happiness, and this beloved and lamented Daughter was Her great comfort and support, the Nation evinced the same touching sympathy, as well as when, in December, 1871, The Prince of Wales was at the point of death.

Such an exhibition of true and tender feeling will ever remain engraven on The Queen's heart, and is the more to be valued at this moment of great distress in the Country, which no one more deeply deplores than The Queen herself.

EUROPEAN COMMISSION OF THE DANUBE.

MODIFICATION OF ANNEX B OF PUBLIC ACT
RELATING TO THE NAVIGATION OF THE MOUTHS OF THE DANUBE.

Tariff of Navigation Dues to be levied at the Mouth of Sulina.

THE European Commission of the Danube decided, at its Meeting at Galatz, on the 18th of November, 1878, to abolish, from and after the 1st of January, 1879, Articles 2 and 3 of the above-mentioned Tariff, and to adopt in lieu of them the following Articles :—

Of more than 150 tons and not ex- ceeding 200 tons	1	0	1	35	1	70	1	70	1	70	1	70
Of more than 200 tons and not ex- ceeding 250 tons	1	0	1	35	1	70	2	10	2	10	2	10

Of more than 300 tons and not ex- ceeding 350 tons	1	0	1	35	1	70	2	10	2	50	2	90
Of more than 350 tons ...	1	0	1	35	1	70	2	10	2	50	2	90

STEAM-VESSELS which receive their cargo wholly or in part in the Port of Sulina without ascending the river beyond the limits of the said port, pay the Dues determined in francs and centimes by the following Table:—

Steam-vessels loading at Sulina.	Amount of Dues to pay, with a Depth at the Mouth of less than 10 feet.	10 feet at least, and 11 feet at most.	More than 11 feet to 12 feet.	12 feet to 13 feet.	13 feet to 14 feet.	14 feet to 15 feet.

Of more than 350 tons	0	80	1	20	1	60	1	90	2	20	2	80

ART. 3.

Every steam or sailing vessel must pay, on its first voyage to the Danube in each year, the full amount of the dues to which it is liable according to the Articles of the Tariff in force.

Every vessel which shall make a second voyage to the Danube in the same year will be allowed, on this second voyage, a reduction of 5 per cent. on the full dues above-mentioned.

Every vessel which shall make a third voyage during the same year will be allowed a reduction of 10 per cent. on the full dues above-mentioned; on the fourth voyage, of 15 per cent. ; on the fifth, of 20 per cent., and so on ; that is to say, for each voyage after the first, up to the seventeenth, an additional reduction of 5 per cent.

The mean reduction obtained on the seventeenth voyage will thus be 40 per cent., and this mean reduction will be applied to each subsequent voyage according to the following Table :—

Number of Voyage.	Percentage of Reduction per Voyage.	Mean Reduction per Voyage.
2	5	2.5
3	10	5
4	15	7.5
5	20	10
6	25	12.5
7	30	15
8	35	17.5
9	40	20
10	45	22.5
11	50	25
12	55	27.5
13	60	30
14	65	32.5
15	70	35
16	75	37.5
17	80	40
18	40	40
19	40	40
20	40	40

and so on.

The number of voyages of the vessels of public Companies effected periodically according to a time-bill published before hand, will not be reckoned by each voyage of a single vessel, but by "periodical voyage" of the Company.

Nevertheless, it is understood that in no case shall the taxes of vessels be reduced in such a manner as to exempt them from lighthouse and pilotage dues.

If, in the course of the year, the public Companies find it impossible to accomplish one or several voyages, in consequence of the interruption of the navigation of the Danube by some wholly other cause than that resulting from the effects of winter, they shall be allowed a proportionate reduction of tariff. This reduction shall be determined at the end of the year by the Navigation Cash Office in such a manner that the vessels of the Companies shall, for each voyage accomplished, enjoy the mean reduction of tariff by which they would have benefited during the same season under the ordinary conditions of the navigation.

Moreover, the above enactments of the present Article are not applicable to the steamers mentioned in the following paragraph :—

Paddle-wheel steamers not having more than ten English feet draught of water when fully laden, belonging to a public company, specially destined to the transport of passengers, and to a regular postal service, and consequently effecting periodical voyages according to a time-bill published beforehand, only pay on leaving the river a fixed due of sixty centimes per ton ; but this due is always levied on the whole of the taxable tonnage, without taking account of the proportion of cargo.

These vessels are moreover freed from all duty on their entry into the river.

B.—LIABILITIES OF THE COMMISSION.

The liabilities of the Commission comprised on the 31st December, 1877, the following debts :—

1. The unpaid balance of the loan concluded with the house of Bischoffsheim and Goldschmidt.
2. The amounts due to Turkey on account of the advances made by her up to 1863, and on account current.

1.—The Bischoffsheim and Goldschmidt 4 per Cent. Loan.

The loan of £135,000, concluded with this bank in 1868, is repayable in annuities, whereof the total, including the interests, amounts to £170,901^{5.9}/₁₀₀. By the payment of £86,400, effected in 1871, 1872, 1873, 1874, 1875, and 1876, this debt was reduced to £84,501^{5.9}/₁₀₀, viz.:—

	Capital.	Int.-rest.
In 1877 has been paid in addition £14,400, consisting of ...	£74,645.58 11,528.32	£9,856.01 2,871.68
Remainders ...	£63,117.26	£6,984.33	1219
Together £70,101 ^{5.9} / ₁₀₀ , at 25 fcs. = fcs. 1,752,539.75 ets., repayable by annuities, of which the last falls due on the 31st of December, 1882.

2.—The Debt to the Sublime Porte.

The total of this debt amounted on the 31st of December, 1877, to fcs. 4,310,964.67 consisting of—

1. The principal capital of 3,739,540 francs, producing interest at 4 per cent. per annum from the 1st of January, 1871.

2. And of the balance of 571,424 francs 67 cts., which results from the account-current kept separately. This account is credited with the interest produced by the principal capital, and is debited with the payments made by the Commission on account of the Ottoman Government, such as the salaries of the Officials of the General Inspection of the Navigation at Touloucha, and of the Port Office at Sulina, &c., &c.

The principal capital is repayable by annuities of 180,000 francs at least, to be met half-yearly, commencing from the 30th June, 1883.

The balance of the account-current is to be liquidated on the same terms, after the complete amortization of the principal debt.
